

Cyber crime is always evolving. You should be too

More businesses are seeing the value of cyber security training, and that's great.

But still too many view it as a one-and-done exercise.

If there's one thing we know about cyber crime, it's that it's constantly evolving. And that means if you want to stay up to date on the latest threats, your training needs to be regular.

In our latest guide we compare how two different companies with different attitudes to cyber security training fared against a phishing attempt. We also explain how to create your own training plan to make sure it's a success.
